Permissions

The following is a complete listing and description of what functions on the Device are accessed and / or modified by the Application. Unless otherwise indicated, the permission applies to VOXERCISE:

ACCESS NETWORK STATE

Allows the application to view information about network connections such as which networks exist and are connected. The application needs to check if the User has cellular or WIFI connection.

CHECK LICENSE

Verifies the market license.

INTERNET

Allows the application to open network sockets so it can open the forums within the app and communicate with the support center.

READ PHONE STATE

Allows read-only access to phone state, including the phone number of the device, current cellular network information, the status of any ongoing calls, and a list of any Phone Accounts registered on the device. However, the application only needs this permission to know if there is an incoming call so that it can pause the playback of any ongoing audio. The application does not read, store or collect any of the User's information.

ANALYZE AUDIO

Allows the application to access the microphone so that the application may analyze the singing pitch of the User to provide realtime feedback on the User's singing pitch.

Risks Associated with the Internet or Wireless Data Transmission

Despite Voice Guru's efforts to ensure third parties will not access or obtain the User's personal information through the Application, complete confidentiality and security cannot currently be guaranteed on the Internet and/or where data is transferred via wireless digital technology of any type. Communication in this manner is subject to interception, loss, or alteration. The User acknowledges and agrees that Voice Guru cannot be held responsible for damages resulting from the transmission of information in this manner and that such communications are at the User's own risk.

Links to Other Websites

Voxercise may display links to third-party websites and apps or provide a result that links directly to a third-party website or app. Please note that even if Voxercise is affiliated with such third party, the company does not control and cannot be held responsible for the content, activities, policies and practices of such websites and apps regarding the User's information, and those sites may use the information they collect from the User consistent with their own privacy policies. The User should always read the privacy policy of a website or app to find out more about how the User's information is collected and processed.

Children's Privacy

Voxercise is not directed to persons under 13. If you become aware that your child has provided us with Personal Data without your consent, please contact us at Sara [at] Voxercise.com. We do not knowingly collect Personal Data from children under 13. If we become aware that a child under 13 has provided us with Personal Data, we take steps to remove such information and terminate the child's account.

Limitation of Liability

Voice Guru, and / or its respective owner and employees will not be held liable for any damages resulting from the misuse of any information collected through the Application not in violation of the Policy.
